TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF TRADE

1. Quotations

All quotations are based on printed, typewritten, electronic or other good copy acceptable to the supplier. Where the customer supplies its own printing plates or any other item, they must be of an acceptable quality and quantity as determined by the supplier. If the supplier finds it necessary to carry out additional work or to supply materials in order to obtain good copy upon which to base a quotation, the customer will pay for that work and materials. For the purpose of these terms of trade "quotation" includes "estimate". If a quotation is given on a page basis, every page, whether printed or not and including flush cut paper covers shall be paid for at the page rate. Customers are therefore advised to carefully check quotations before accepting them.

2. Acceptance

The quotation will lapse if not accepted within 30 days.

3. GST

Quotations do not include GST unless shown to do so.

4. Variations/Alterations

All quotations are based on the conditions and specifications in the quotation, (ink, paper or other medium, layout, quantity, delivery etc.) and provide for all work and materials required to complete the order. Any (a) variation or alteration to the conditions and specifications or (b) increase in material and or labour costs may increase the quoted price.

5. Experimental and/or Creative Work

Experimental work, preliminary sketches, dummies, designs and other creative work, intermediate materials and any resultant goods must be paid for by the customer unless the cost is separately identified and provided for as part of the quoted price and the customer shall not use any proposal or idea from the supplier for content, medium, layout or presentation until such work has been paid for. The Supplier reserves all rights including ownership of copyright for sketches, dummies, designs and other creative work produced by the Supplier until full payment for such designs until such work has been paid for.

6. Colour Proofs

The supplier provides no guarantee that production prints will exactly match colour proofs because of variations in proof preparation methods and substrates. The supplier will however use its best endeavours to provide a commercially acceptable finished product.

7. Proof Approval

The supplier is not liable for errors or variations in the finished work where such errors or variations were contained in the proof approved by the customer.

8. Holding of Plant to Customer's Instructions

If any plant is set up to print or otherwise work on the customer's job or on goods being prepared for the customer and the progress or completion of the work is delayed by or on behalf of the customer the customer will pay the supplier's waiting charges for such plant.

9. Customer's Property

The supplier will take reasonable care of the customer's property but the risk shall be on the customer and the supplier shall not be responsible for any damage. Unless it is otherwise agreed in writing the supplier will not be responsible for insurance cover. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, the supplier may dispose of any materials held three months following the date of the invoice.

10. Intermediate Material

(that product which comes into existence during the preparation or processing of the customer's order but which is not the final product) Ownership of intermediate materials except those supplied by the customer, will remain the supplier's property.

11. Electronic Images and/or Files

It is the customer's responsibility to retain a copy of any electronic image or file supplied by the customer to the supplier. The supplier is not responsible for accidental damage to any electronic material supplied and such material is held at the customer's risk. The supplier may charge for any additional translating, editing or programming needed to utilise customer supplied files or images and such charges shall be in addition to the quoted price. Subject to clause 10 the supplier's own electronic records shall remain the property of the supplier.

12. Quantity

Unless otherwise agreed the supplier will deliver the quantity specified.

13. Delivery

Unless otherwise agreed delivery of the goods is at the supplier's factory door in a continuous uninterrupted delivery of the complete order.

14. Termination of Contract

Notwithstanding any other clause in this agreement, where a contract is suspended or cancelled by the customer, all work carried out and goods supplied by the supplier will be paid for by the customer forthwith on presentation of the invoice. Contracts for the printing of periodicals may only be cancelled on the supplier receiving the agreed amount of notice in writing. If there is no such agreement, the notice period shall be two months. If work is suspended the customer will pay any additional costs or for any loss caused to the supplier by the suspension.

15. Claims

Complaints regarding finished goods must be received by the supplier within a reasonable time. What is a "reasonable time" will depend on the circumstances of each case.

16. Illegal or Libellous Material

The supplier is not required to reproduce any material or produce any goods that are, in the suppliers opinion, illegal, objectionable, or libellous in nature or that is in breach of any copyright, patent, design or statute. The supplier will be indemnified by the customer in respect of any and all damages claims, costs, and expenses (including actual legal costs and disbursements on a solicitor and own client basis) for which the supplier may be liable or which it may suffer arising out of any libel or breach of statute or infringement of copyright, patent or design which may arise out of or be associated with the goods provided by the supplier to the customer.

17. Supplier's Liability

Where the customer is a company or a person acquiring or holding him or her self out as acquiring goods or services or both for the purposes of a business the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 will not apply to the supply of goods under this agreement. The supplier will not be liable for any indirect or consequential loss to the customer or to any third party arising from errors in the work or from delay in delivery. No warranty is given or responsibility accepted by the supplier to ensure that finished or any goods produced comply with the requirements of any legislation relating to the marking and/or labelling, and/or packaging of goods. Compliance with any such legislation shall be the customer's responsibility. No guarantee is given that the goods supplied to the customer are fit for any purpose not made known to the supplier or suitable for any market requirement. The supplier shall not be responsible for any delay, default, or consequential loss or damage due to any industrial disputes, accidents, natural disasters, acts of terrorism, equipment failure, mischievous damage or other cause beyond the supplier's control.

18. Payment

Payment is due in full on or before the 20th of the month following delivery unless otherwise stated in these terms or in the supplier's invoice to the customer. If invoices are not paid in full and on time the customer will pay collection and legal fees and such fees may include additional fees or commissions charged by debt collecting firms and actual legal costs and disbursements charged on a solicitor and own client basis. In addition to the costs of recovery the customer will pay penalty interest on any unpaid amount from the due date until payment in full at the rate of 24% per annum and such penalty interest shall continue to be payable after and notwithstanding any judgement obtained by the supplier against the customer. If the supplier finds it necessary to sue the customer, service of any document will be deemed to be effected on the customer if that document is left at the address shown as the customer's business address or home address or registered address.

19. Security Interest

The supplier retains a security interest in all goods supplied to the customer until the supplier receives payment in full of all sums owing by the customer under any contract for the supply of the goods. The nature of the security interest is that the supplier retains title to the goods. The security interest shall apply to goods supplied to the customer in the future. The customer shall not allow any goods subject to the security interest to become an accession to other goods.

- (a) The customer hereby waives the customer's right to receive a copy of the verification statement following registration of the supplier's security interest.
- (b) The supplier may allocate any payment received from the customer against any debt owed by the customer in any manner that the supplier may decide, notwithstanding any purported allocation by the customer.
- (c) If after due date the debt remains unpaid the supplier is entitled to enter the customer's premises and seize the goods unpaid for and to dispose of them as the supplier sees fit and to apply such proceeds towards the debt. The customer hereby irrevocably authorises the supplier or the supplier's agents to enter the premises of the customer to locate and seize the goods.
- (d) If the supplier does not at any time have priority over all other secured parties in relation to any goods then pursuant to section 107(1) of the PPSA, for the purposes of dealing with those goods the parties contract out of sections 108 and 109 to the extent of deleting the words "with priority over all other secured parties" in sections 108 and 109(1) of the PPSA and the PPSA shall be read as if sections 108 and 109(1) did not have the words "with priority over all other secured parties".

- (e) The customer agrees that none of sections 114(1)(a), 133 or 134 of the PPSA will apply to any dealings with the goods under this agreement. The customer further waives their rights:
 - i To receive a statement of account under section 116;
 - ii To receive any part of the surplus under section 117(1)(c) or recover it under section 119 if the supplier has in good faith made any payment to any person under sections 117(1)(a) or 117(1)(b) to which it subsequently transpires that person was not entitled;
 - iii To receive notice of any proposal of the supplier to retain goods under section 120(2);
 - iv To object to the supplier's proposal to retain goods under section 121;
 - v To make any claim for damages to any other goods if the supplier removes an accession under section 125;
 - vi To be given notice of the removal of any accession under section 129;
 - vii To apply to the Court for any order with respect to removal of an accession under section 131;
 - viii To redeem any goods under section 132;

20. Dispute Resolution

In the first instance any dispute between the parties must be discussed between them to attempt to settle the dispute. Where the parties cannot reach a settlement between themselves, the supplier as a member of Printing Industries New Zealand allows the parties access to the services of Printing Industries New Zealand to resolve any differences between the parties by mediation. If no agreement can be reached through mediation the parties may agree to arbitration by Printing Industries New Zealand by signing a separate agreement. This clause does not remove the customer's right to refer any dispute to any other body or organisation, or impose any requirement that the customer attend any mediation or arbitration. The law applicable to the supply of the goods shall be the law of New Zealand and any disputes shall be adjudicated in the New Zealand courts.

Declaration

1. On behalf of (or as) the customer I have read and understand the Terms of Trade stated above and this page and agree to abide by them.
2. Under the terms of the Privacy Act 1993, I authorise any person or company to provide you with such information as you may require in response to your credit enquiries. I also authorise you to furnish to any third party, details of this application and any subsequent dealings that the customer may have with you.
3. If any separate contract for the supply of goods has terms which are inconsistent with terms of this agreement the terms of the separate contract shall predominate over the terms of this agreement.

If this form is faxed, I the signatory will forward the original signed copy to the supplier.
